SEMINAR ON SIR SYED AHMAD KHAN

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan (1817-1898), one of the foremost intellectuals, educationists, social reformers, researchers, and writers of his age, occupies a distinguished place in the intellectual and educational history of the Indian subcontinent. As the founder of Aligarh Muslim University and the principal architect of the Aligarh Movement, he devoted his life to the advancement of modern education, social reform, rational thought, and intellectual awakening among the Indian Muslim community.

Born on 17 October 1817, Sir Syed Ahmad Khan is remembered every year on his birth anniversary as "Sir Syed Day." The day is commemorated with great enthusiasm and reverence in India and across the world, providing an occasion to reflect upon his visionary ideas, educational philosophy, and enduring contribution to the intellectual and social transformation of society.

On the auspicious occasion of Sir Syed Day, the Department of Urdu, Shibli National College, is going to organize a National Seminar on the topic "Sir Syed Ahmad Khan: His Vision and Mission" on 17 October 2026 at 11:00 a.m. in Smart Room No. 2 of the College.

All esteemed members of the teaching staff, non-teaching staff, and dear students are cordially invited to participate in the seminar and enrich the academic proceedings with their valued presence and intellectual engagement.

Students and research scholars who wish to present research papers are requested to register their names with the Department of Urdu by 15 October 2026.

Your gracious participation will contribute significantly to the success and academic enrichment of the seminar.

With sincere thanks.
